THE REV. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

O other country is so rich as England in Sacred Literature. Her greatest Poets and Philosophers have shared with her Divines, in setting 10 th and establishing the raths of Revelations and establishing the raths of Revelations and the depth of their learning.

The soundness of character thus given to the standard Theology of England has, throe a variety of circumstances, been happily prevented from degenerating into the harshness of scholasticism; and thus the whole series of the United States, and will, the proprietor be-THE REV. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

BRARY. The cheapest reprint from English Periodicals ever offered to the public.

DEFORE the Select Circulating Libra-ry had been long in existence, it was discovered that there was still something wanting-that many occurrences in the life rary world must pass unknown, as regarded our agency, without an extension of the plan. To establish a fuller medium of communicaion and supply the desideratum, the Journal of Belles Lettres was added; which we have reason to believe has afforded genera satisfaction. The very liberal patronage extended to the Library induced the proprie tor to give that gratuitously as an evidence of his acknowledgments. More extended experience has shown o her desiderata which the "Companion" i intended to supply. While reading for the large mass of material accumulates on the hands of the editor, of an interesting, entertaining, and instructive description, such as would properly come under the designation of Magaziniana, interspersed with the Reviews from the English Quarterlies. To publish every thing of this nature which we deem desirable would en-Books entire, Reviews, lists of new works, the choicest contributions to Magazines, dic. &c. the "Companion to Wuldie's Library" will be offered to the patronage of the present subscribers and the public at large. It is believed that with the "Library," the "Journal," and the "Companion," such an acquaintance with the literature of the age may be cultivated as to leave little further to be desired. Being all published from the same office, more facility offers for subscribing, and having fewer people to deal with, mistakes are less liable to occur, and &c. &c &c. the "Companion to Waldie's with, mistakes are less liable to occur, and more readily corrected when they do. The short interval of two weeks between the publication of each number, it is thought too. will be an advantage over monthlies and quarterlies.

will be expected, as its appearance will evince a sufficiency of patronage.

The proprietor of the "Select Circulating Library," fully aware from experience of the subvantages to the public of the rapid diffusion of cheap and select literature, has been induced to add the important feature to the work, and of course leaves it optional with the present subscribers and others to rinco a sufficiency of patronage.
The proprietor of the "Select Circulating Library," fully aware from experience of the advantages to the public of the rapid ake it or not.

It is confidently believed, that, with the attention on the part of the Editor, who has already at hand the material for such a work, Two Delegates from this city to the next General Assembly of this State, and also Two Representatives for the Fourth Congressional District in this State in the Congress of the District in this State in the Congress of the comprised in this form at a rate of subscription and postage, so trifling as searcely to tion and postage, so trifling as scarcely to be felt. It will form the cheapest reprint of reviews and magazines ever attempted in any country; a comparison with others if were uncless here to enter upon, the 'Library' itself being the best test by which to judge of the difference between an octavo and a quarto page. It will be the study of the Editor to embody a record of the day, adapted to the wants of this country, which can have no competitor for value or cheap-ness; how far he is likely to do this he must eave at present to the decision of his readers
